

I understand that XM Radio is under attack. I feel that they are perform good programming and giving out good information on weather and travel situations throughout the United States. I believe that the travel and weather stations are acting in good faith. I urgently request that you act favorably toward XM Radio.